

“The United Kingdom values its close partnership with Georgia. Our shared values and common vision provide a strong platform for continued joint work on a range of issues, including defence and security challenges. The UK will continue to strongly support Georgia’s territorial integrity and sovereignty, and remains committed to supporting its NATO membership aspirations.

Looking ahead, there are plenty of opportunities to deepen our bilateral relationship. The UK-Georgia Strategic Partnership and Cooperation Agreement, signed in October 2019, is an important treaty that will provide the framework for our future relationship and ensure increased flows of trade and investment”

The Rt Hon. Boris Johnson MP
Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
