Prime Minister's Trade Envoy for Jordan, Kuwait and Palestinian Territories

It gives me great pleasure to contribute to this important publication produced by FIRST to mark the 60th Anniversary of the Independence of the State of Kuwait. As the Prime Minister's Trade Envoy to Kuwait, I have witnessed the bilateral relationship between Kuwait and the United Kingdom grow even stronger in recent years and I am delighted to add my heartfelt congratulations to the leadership and people of Kuwait on this historic anniversary.

A new action plan was recently signed at the 17th UK-Kuwait Joint Steering Group confirming the further strengthening of cooperation between the two countries across a range of sectors including trade, investment, technology, security and culture. The breadth of these discussions underlines the commitment of both countries to work ever more closely together in our shared interest. The 60th Anniversary gives us all the opportunity to celebrate an historic milestone and to build on a vital and enduring friendship between our two nations. F
