

Introduction by
Rt Hon Lord Astor of Hever PC DL

We at first are delighted to publish this official report on the Republic of Namibia. The government of Namibia emphasises the importance of a business friendly environment and has promoted measures to enhance market access. Namibia offers a wealth of trade and investment opportunities across a range of key sectors including renewable energy, mining, hydrocarbons, agriculture, tourism, logistics, chemicals and business services. Policy makers in Namibia aim to strengthen further these economic opportunities and relations.

I am certain that Namibia will continue to work ever more closely with the international community to address key global challenges including the promotion of trade and investment opportunities. F
